Introduction

Here is a subject-verb agreement worksheet to help teach students verb-noun collocations and subject-verb agreement in the present simple.

Procedure

Give each student a copy of the worksheet.

First, students match each verb on their worksheet with three nouns from the box.

Next, students write a present simple sentence for each verb using the given subject pronoun and three nouns.

When the students have finished, go through the answers with the class.

Answer key

2. He writes letters, e-mails and notes.
3. They play tennis, games and football.
4. I eat apples, vegetables and rice.
5. She reads stories, newspapers and books.
6. We go fishing, swimming and running.
7. He drives a car, a bus and a taxi.
8. You do homework, exercise and cleaning.
9. I watch TV, YouTube and films.
10. They live in a city, a house and an apartment.
11. She carries a bag, purse and suitcase.
12. You have a shower, party and breakfast.

Match three nouns to each verb. Then, write a present simple sentence for each verb using the three nouns. Remember to use the correct subject-verb agreement.
